

PLANNING YOUR FUNERAL AT ST IGNATIUS

Planning is important. You plan vacations, retirement, and oil changes for your car. Yet how many take the time to plan for their funeral and burial arrangements? Some of us know very well what happens when a loved one dies without any planning. The survivors are left to figure out what Mom or Dad might have wanted. What about you? Will your family understand how important a Catholic Funeral Liturgy is for you? Will they know the ones you want to participate? What music do you want played? Does your family know if you want burial or cremation? This is an opportunity for you to plan and put your wishes on record.

FREE FUNERAL PLANNING WORKSHOP SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29 from 9-11 am Dillon Hall

Presenters: Pastor Craig Boly, S.J.
Rebecca Tjaarda, Mt. Scott Funeral Home
Pam Henkel, Archdiocese of Portland Catholic Cemeteries
Jeanette Grimaldi, Musician

In the first hour of the program, our presenters will review Catholic funeral practices, funeral liturgies, funeral home and burial options. This will be an interactive time for you to ask questions and discuss concerns you might have.

In the second hour, you will receive a planning workbook and will have the time to put your wishes in writing. Staff and written resources will be available to help you. By the time you leave the workshop you will have a record for your family and the parish, and peace of mind for yourself. You will have the confidence that you are not making anyone else responsible for your last wishes.

Please RSVP

Call the St. Ignatius office at 503-777-1491 or send an email to ewalker@sipdx.org
Mention the funeral planning workshop and tell us how many are in your party.
